編號	Work Title	Lantern Description - Design Concept
A01	Chill Taipei	Taipei, the capital city, glows at night with stunning skylines, celebrated local cuisine, and lively night markets. Spacious, people-friendly streets and convenient transportation set the stage for this lantern work, which blends classic Chinese literature Journey to the West with contemporary pop culture inspirations such as Black Myth: Wukong and A Chinese Odyssey . In this playful lantern scene, the Bodhisattva transforms a fearsome dragon into a noble steed, while Tang Sanzang and his companions encounter the alluring Spider Spirit as they roam through iconic city landmarks, including Taipei Music Center, Taipei 101, Breeze Center, Xiangshan Hiking Trail, the Miramar Ferris Wheel, and Democracy Square. Together, they weave a dazzling modern myth set against the vibrant rhythm of Taipei.
A04	Gallop Forward, All Goes Smoothly	This work highlights Taipei's unique charm, where classical heritage meets modern vitality. A leaping horse dominates the scene, symbolizing the city's boundless energy. The sleek silhouette of Taipei 101 is paired with the solemn elegance of traditional palace architecture, reflecting both cultural depth and global perspective. Colorful flowers and lotus blossoms in the foreground represent flourishing life, expressing a vision of harmony and shared prosperity that allows viewers to feel Taipei's spirit of progress rooted in tradition.
A07	Blue Magpies Gather : Blessings for Taipei	Drawing on Taipei's city spirit, this lantern combines blue magpies with auspicious symbolism to convey joy, fortune, and happiness. It celebrates the arrival of spring and envisions a year filled with happiness, prosperity, and positive energy, creating a warm and hopeful image of a joyful Taipei.
A03	Taipei, an "Urban Horse City"	Framed by mountains such as Yangmingshan and Xiangshan, Taipei is an "urban horse city," where the Horse Year theme meets the city's mountain-ringed landscape. On weekends, people enjoy relaxing outings on their modern "steeds," making the city an ideal destination for outdoor leisure and nature getaways.
A06	Instant Prosperity	Inspired by a wordplay on "prosperity," this work incorporates floral and wood elements to symbolize endless abundance and renewal. It conveys wishes for good fortune in the Year of the Horse, hoping everyone may enjoy immediate success and thriving wealth.

A09	Taipei Children's Amusement Park	A carousel serves as the symbol of joyful childhood memories, linking laughter and dreams from the past. Through light and shadow, the work expresses hope that every child may grow with happiness, imagination, and a bright future.
A12	"Ma Dao Cheng Gong" Swift Success	Three adorable horse lanterns lead the way forward, symbolizing light and hope arriving hand in hand and marking the opening of a smooth, promising path for the new year. Carrying the blessing of "Ma Dao Cheng Gong" - success upon arrival - the piece wishes everyone a Year of the Horse filled with realized hopes and effortless progress.
A05	Soaring Steed over Taipei	In this lantern design, the horse represents strength, perseverance, wisdom, and freedom. A winged horse gallops at the forefront, its wings moving with light, symbolizing flight, freedom, and transcendence. Behind it follows a richly decorated carriage carrying children, representing a longing for exploration and the pursuit of freedom, brought vividly to life through dynamic lighting and detail.
A02	The Sweet Adventure of the Candy Fish	A candy-colored fish embarks on a whimsical food adventure through Taipei, tasting local flavors along the way. The scene features desserts such as ice cream, soda floats, and gummy candies, alongside Taiwanese classics like braised pork, bamboo shoots, and cabbage. Joined by cute ponies and pandas, the work uses charming characters and food imagery to express Taipei's diversity, delicious flavors, and vibrant energy, celebrating the city's warmth and everyday happiness.
A08	Gallop Through Clouds, Lighting Up Taipei	Featuring Taipei 101 and the Chiang Kai-shek Memorial Hall, this work highlights the dialogue between cultural heritage and modern prosperity. Framed by mountains and waterways, it presents a vision of nature and city life thriving in harmony. At the center, a majestic horse charges across a sea of clouds, embodying determination, momentum, and the drive toward a brighter future. Surrounding it are playful lambs and gold ingots, symbols of fortune and abundance, adding a sense of celebration and completeness. By weaving together city landmarks, natural scenery, the Year of the Horse, and wishes for good fortune, the piece conveys vibrant energy and the warm, uplifting spirit rooted in this land.
A10	Unicorns Roaming Taipei	2026 marks Taipei's Year of AI, highlighting rapid advancements that emulate human cognition and drive innovation in smart transportation, healthcare, and scientific research. In this work, unicorns wander through Taipei, symbolizing a flourishing new era of technology and imagination. Taipei is also portrayed as a friendly, inclusive city, where people, stray dogs, and stray cats alike find care and protection. Cherry blossoms and Tung flowers on the unicorns are crafted from recycled plastic bottles, while all elements are shaped with paper-covered wire and finished with fabric, reflecting sustainability and creativity.
A11	The Ageless Knight Don Quixote and His Journey of Dreams	The Spanish gentleman Don Quixote imagines himself a wandering knight and sets off on an adventure with the farmer Sancho. He mistakes windmills for fearsome beasts, drawing laughter from villagers and curious glances from small animals. Yet someone beats the drums and cheers them on - can you guess who it is? The answer awaits discovery within the scene.

A13	Melodies of the Horse Year, Prosperity Without End	Drawing inspiration from Chinese classical instruments and string music associated with the Year of the Horse, this lantern work weaves together sound and form to symbolize a fresh start for the new year. Lotus flowers and elegant blossoms are incorporated throughout the design, arranged like interwoven notes to compose a graceful and auspicious visual melody. Through this fusion of musical imagery and floral elements, the lantern expresses blessings for good fortune in the Year of the Horse, with everything unfolding smoothly and successfully.
B01	Blue Magpies Bring Good News, Prosperous Blooms Unfold	Centered on auspicious symbolism, this work pairs the blue magpie - a harbinger of good news - with flowers representing wealth and abundance. Soft colors and flowing lines express harmony with nature, symbolizing steady progress and unending good fortune. Common in the Greater Taipei area, the magpie is reimagined through modern aesthetics grounded in tradition, delivering blessings of joy, prosperity, and happiness at one's doorstep.
B05	Love, Taipei	Centered on the city's charm and emotional connections, this work presents Taipei's diversity and inclusiveness through symbolic visual imagery. Drawing inspiration from urban landmarks, mountain and water landscapes, and the rhythm of everyday life, and set in the Year of the Horse, swans form a heart shape to symbolize the deep emotional bond between residents and the city. The piece conveys Taipei's unique vitality and the sense of romance, allowing viewers to feel the city's warmth, creativity, and appeal, while sketching beautiful memories that belong exclusively to Taipei.
B02	Auspicious Steed Welcomes Spring, Happiness Sets Off	This work features a freely galloping horse as its main character. A fluttering butterfly rests at the tip of its tail, symbolizing good fortune that follows closely. A cute little foal sits atop the horse's back, adding a touch of childlike charm. The surrounding scene is decorated with lively Lantern Festival elements: a joyful bunny enjoying tangyuan, oranges symbolizing great luck and blessings for the new year, and two adorable little tigers happily strolling through the lantern fair. Together, the composition presents a festive image filled with joy, happiness, and harmony, evoking the Lantern Festival spirit of reunion and abundant blessings.
B04	Power Hitters Take the Field with Instant Success!	Taiwan's baseball strength is widely recognized, and in the 2026 World Baseball Classic, Taiwanese players are sure to shine. Coinciding with the Year of the Horse, this work draws inspiration from the zodiac and combines it with classic baseball movements to showcase both power and beauty. It expresses the hope that every member of Team Taiwan will step up as a strong hitter and achieve instant success.
B03	Cute Power League Goes All Out	At Taipei Dome, an animal themed baseball carnival is in full swing. Windmills beside the stadium and fluttering butterflies add a sense of lightness and motion to the scene. A little lamb swings the bat and hits a home run, symbolizing courage and breakthrough. A giant baseball marked with "2026 World Baseball Classic" dominates the field, while a macaque ready to catch the ball showcases agility and focus. A young tiger reaches base successfully, celebrating victory, and a baby foal cheers from the sidelines, adding innocence and enthusiasm into the game. The work conveys unity, vitality, and the belief of never giving up.

C06	Dragon-Horse Spirit, Radiant Champions	Pitching like a soaring dragon and swinging like a leaping horse. Channel the dragon-horse spirit into every throw, and meet every at-bat with unyielding resolve. Give it your all, fearless and undaunted, and let victory shine across the field.
C01	Fortune Bringing Horse, Blessings Arrive	This work centers on a fortune-bringing horse, combined with lanterns, gourds, gold ingots, and colorful spheres to symbolize joy, wealth, and complete blessings. The background integrates geometric patterns with natural flowers and butterflies, expressing vitality and life, while also implying a colorful new year surrounded by good fortune. Bright, warm tones create a joyful atmosphere, conveying wishes of happiness, peace, and an endless flow of prosperity.
C03	Taiwan Number One	Focusing on an intense baseball scene, this work depicts the pitcher, batter, catcher, and umpire giving their all at a critical moment in the game, highlighting teamwork and the never-give-up-spirit of sportsmanship. The phrase “Taiwan Number One” symbolizes love and confidence in local baseball. It encourages children to swing boldly and run freely, both on the field and in life, creating outstanding performances for themselves and for Taiwan.
C07	Taipei Food Is Awesome	This work features Taipei landmarks and the Formosan Black Bear as the main characters, combined with musical performances, lanterns, and fireworks to create a lively carnival atmosphere. In the foreground, bubble tea, local snacks, and the phrase “Taipei Food Is Awesome” symbolize the city's diverse and authentic food culture. The bears happily perform together, representing people gathering to share joyful moments accompanied by music and food, while also expressing love and pride for the city of Taipei.
C09	Colorful Rainbow Ponies	This work features two adorable little ponies as the main characters, symbolizing friendship and companionship. They share sweet moments amid a fairy tale setting of castles, balloons, and cakes. A red heart at the center represents sincere emotions and mutual care, while surrounding stars and vibrant colors express shining dreams and hope. Soft pastel tones create a warm and romantic atmosphere, conveying the message that as long as there is love in one's heart, the world becomes as colorful and beautiful as a rainbow wonderland.
C04	Smile Always, and Wealth Arrives Immediately	This work features the ever smiling Maitreya as the main figure, holding gold ingots with money bags and ingots piled at his feet, symbolizing attracting wealth, receiving blessings, and wishes coming true. Beside him, a “wealth arrives immediately” wheel and a fine horse echo auspicious New Year phrases, implying that good luck comes right away. Children gathered around represent family happiness and prosperity passed down through generations. Warm, bright colors with lanterns and flowers convey the design concept of welcoming an abundant life with a cheerful mindset.

C05	Galloping a Thousand Miles, Carp Leaping Across Ice	Galloping a thousand miles, carp leaping across ice, this work combines the galloping imagery of the Year of the Horse with auspicious New Year aspirations. The horse symbolizes courage, progress, and breakthroughs, representing students facing difficulties and challenges on their learning journey without fear. The auspicious carp symbolizes good fortune and upward leaps, conveying hope and growth for the new year. The glacier imagery represents steadfast progress even amid hardship and harsh conditions. The work conveys the spirit of moving toward the light, blessing everyone with vitality, self-breakthrough, and the drive to race toward a distant horizon in the coming year.
C08	The Famous General with the steed "Red Hare" ; Who Can Compete ?	Countless heroes have achieved great deeds on horseback, yet few legendary steeds are remembered through history. When heroes are matched with famous horses, greatness is forged. As 2026 coincides with the Year of the Horse, this work expresses the wish that you too may become a hero in your own field, witnessing the moment of a famous general paired with the steed named "Red Hare," with none able to rival them. It hopes everyone can be like a renowned general riding the "Red Hare," undefeated in every battle and effortlessly mastering every challenge.
C02	Childlike Journey to the West	In Journey to the West , the White Dragon Horse is transformed from the third prince of the Dragon King of the West Sea and assists Tang Sanzang on the journey to retrieve the scriptures. When passing through the Flaming Mountains, Princess Iron Fan and Sun Wukong harbor resentment towards each other because of Red Boy and she refuses to hand over the magical fan. The extreme heat of the Flaming Mountains blocks the westward path, while the Bull Demon King, eager to protect his wife, stands in tense opposition to Tang Sanzang and his disciples. The work expresses a hope that all sides may calm their emotions and value harmony above conflict.
D02	Great Fortune in the 2026 Year of the Horse; May Everything Be As Desired	The scenery on the left symbolizes the revival of all things, blooming flowers, clear skies after rain, and a vibrant natural landscape. The layered mountains on the right represent overcoming difficulties, crossing obstacles, and surpassing peaks. Persimmons and coins symbolize that everything goes as wished and wealth flows abundantly. The entire lantern conveys the imagery of "spring breezes sweeping the land, noble steeds leaping through mountain forests, great fortune in the Year of the Horse, and all things going smoothly."
D01	"Bingwu" Horse Celebrates the Lantern Festival	This work is inspired by stacked building blocks, using bold color blocks and the freedom of modular construction to present a festive scene that blends childlike fun with creativity. The block-shaped horse symbolizes the vitality and the drive of the Bingwu Year of the Horse, bringing blessings of forward momentum for the new year. A dog and a child about to light firecrackers are added to the scene, expressing the lively New Year atmosphere. Surrounding lantern pillars create dazzling holiday light and shadow, highlighting the warmth and joy unique to the Lantern Festival.
